Our NPW Celebration was held on Thursday, September 9th at the Old San Francisco Steakhouse. A total of 88 attendees joined in the celebration. There was great food, a wonderful NPW cake, and of course our traditional game was played. Attendees were grouped in teams per table to play the "Mardi Gras Jeopardy Game". The game consisted of questions from our FPC/CPP Study Group flashcards and some questions about Mardi Gras. The venue was decorated in Mardi Gras colors as well as many NPW balloons around the room.

Each table had a centerpiece made from a Wine flute with a colorful mardi gras mask coming out of it and beads surrounding it.

The NPW committee displayed our proclamations in frames on the entry table for everyone to see.

President, Christy Witzel, CPP read the proclamation we received from Governor Rick Perry, Governor of the great state of Texas.

Fun was had by all during the game – there were opportunities to steal questions, and in the end we had a tie breaker. However, just like with any game there can only be one victor. Team 9 won the game and received goodie bags filled with an NPW Teddy bear, NPW Pen and other items.

We moved on to the abundant door prizes, thanks to our sponsors. We had Payroll Rules teddy bears from Ultimate Software, and gift cards as well as i-Pod shuffles from ADP.
